AP Seminar QUEST Framework

Question and Explore
Challenge and expand the boundaries of your current knowledge

- How does the context of a problem or issue affect how it is interpreted or presented?
- How might others see the problem or issue differently?
- What questions have yet to be asked?
- What voices or perspectives are missing from my research?
- What do I want to know, learn, or understand?
- How does my research question shape how I go about trying to answer it?
- What keywords should I use to search for information about this topic?

Understand and Analyze
Contextualize arguments and comprehend authors’ claims

- What strategies will help me comprehend a text?
- What is the argument's main idea and what reasoning does the author use to develop it?
- Why might the author view the issue this way?
- What biases may the author have that influence his or her perspective?
- Does this argument acknowledge other perspectives?
- How do I know whether something is true?
- What are the implications of these arguments?
- How does this conclusion impact me and my community? Or my research?

Evaluate Multiple Perspectives
Consider individual perspectives and the larger conversation of varied points of view

- What patterns or trends can be identified among the arguments about this issue?
- What are the implications and/or consequences of accepting or rejecting a particular argument?
- How can I connect the multiple perspectives? What other issues, questions, or topics do they relate to?
- How can I explain contradictions within or between arguments?
- From whose perspective is this information being presented, and how does that affect my evaluation?

Synthesize Ideas
Combine knowledge, ideas, and your own perspective into an argument

- How do I connect and analyze the evidence in order to develop an argument and support a conclusion?
- What line of reasoning and evidence would best support my argument? Is my reasoning logical?
- Are there other conclusions I should consider?
- What am I taking for granted? How do I acknowledge and account for my own biases and assumptions?
- What is the best way to acknowledge and attribute the work of others that was used to support my argument?
- How can I avoid committing plagiarism?

Team, Transform, and Transmit
Collaborate, reflect, and communicate your argument in a method suited to your audience

- How can I best appeal to and engage my audience?
- What is the best medium or genre through which to reach my audience?
- What common misconceptions might my audience have?
- How might I adapt my argument for different audiences and situations?
- How might my communication choices affect my credibility with my audience?
- What contributions can I offer to a team?
- What is the benefit of revision?
- How can I benefit from reflecting on my own work?
